

Ralph Engelstad Arena Entry Policy

Arrive Early

Travel Light

Only bring essential items to events

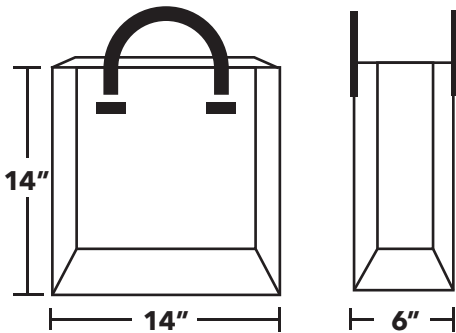

Do Not Bring Bags

Leave bags at home unless absolutely necessary

Approved bags may not exceed 14" x 14" x 6"

Backpack-style diaper or infant supply bags are permitted, but must be accompanied with a child and meet the 14" x 14" x 6" bag size policy. Medical bags and equipment are also permitted.

Not Permitted

Backpacks

Briefcases

Professional Cameras
(lenses longer than 4")

Large Bags

Prohibited items include, but are not limited to:

- Coolers, large bags, bottles, cans, thermoses, or projectiles of any kind
- Weapons, guns, knives, sticks, etc. (any dangerous items)
- Bicycles, roller blades, and skateboards
- Glass containers
- Animals DEAD or ALIVE (except for service animals)
- Recording devices, video cameras, professional cameras (except for properly accredited media)
- Air horns, whistles, or noisemakers
- Non-prescribed drugs
- Alcohol
- E-cigarettes, vaping products, lighters, etc.
- Food and beverages of any kind (other than food purchased from REA licensed vendors)
- Any unauthorized signs
- Selfie sticks
- Aerosol spray bottles of any size (including mace)
- Helium balloons

Ralph Engelstad Arena reserves the right to prohibit any item(s) that it deems unsafe or potentially dangerous.

- Entry policies (bag checks, security screening, etc.) will be enforced at all REA facilities. Ralph Engelstad Arena reserves the right to change or alter venue policies without prior notification in the interest of public safety.
- The entity referred to in this document as "Ralph Engelstad Arena" is comprised of any and all facilities/areas located on the property including Ralph Engelstad Arena, the Olympic Arena, and the Betty Engelstad Sioux Center.