“We’re extremely excited to be hosting the 2026 U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame Game in Austin. It’s a fantastic opportunity to showcase North Dakota Hockey to our fans in the great state of Texas,” said North Dakota Hockey Coach Dane Jackson. “It promises to be an electric atmosphere inside the 6,800-seat H-E-B Center. This outstanding matchup offers our student-athletes and fans an unforgettable experience, featuring two long-time college hockey combatants, and all that Austin and Texas have to offer.”

Numerous fan events have been added leading up to puck drop:

- Hawkey Hub Gathering– Meet with fellow UND fans at select bars and restaurants in the Rainey Street Entertainment District on Thursday evening.
- U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame Golf Tournament- Four-Person Golf Scramble at Avery Ranch Golf Club open to fans Friday morning, October 30.
- NoDak Palooza – Friday night’s official UND fan party is scheduled for downtown Austin at ACL Live at The Moody Theater. A great opportunity for fans to eat, drink and party the night away on Friday evening, October 30, including the introduction of our UND Hockey student-athletes and top-notch local musical acts.
 - NoDak Palooza is a ticketed event, with ticket information being sent at a later date to those who purchase game tickets.
- Official Pregame Party – Located on the H-E-B Center at Cedar Park plaza Saturday afternoon, October 31, before the big game. The Pregame Party features entertainment for fans and a great place to gather under the Texas skies as everyone gets ready for the big game. This event is free and does not require a ticket.
