Premium Seating & Hospitality Manager Julie Frey & Manager of Booking & Special Events AnnMarie Lane

Ralph Engelstad Arena

For couples who love Grand Forks, Ralph Engelstad Arena offers a wedding setting with a connection to home. Chandeliers, granite floors, and familiar UND surroundings provide provide a premium back drop, while a highly experienced hospitality team brings each celebration to life. Julie Frey, premium seating and hospitality manager and AnnMarie Lane, manager of booking and special events, expertly guide couples from their first questions to a smooth execution.

Lane focuses on the details that keep a wedding day running smoothly. Frey, premium seating and hospitality manager, has been part of the arena team since opening day, and is the mastermind behind all catered meals to fit your theme and event look. Their experience helps couples move from their first questions to a celebration shaped around them.

The versatile arena accommodates intimate gatherings of 20 up to grand celebrations of 600. Couples can personalize the experience through video boards and televisions, and even explore exchanging vows at center ice. For Lane and Frey, the reward is helping couples create a new memory in a building already woven into the community's life.
