Star Wars Night at Ralph Engelstad Arena

Star Wars Night – Entry Procedures & Security Screening

Please arrive early for Star Wars Night at Ralph Engelstad Arena. Costumes and props are welcome but subject to security screening. Help us keep the experience fun and safe for everyone. To ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all guests, Ralph Engelstad Arena will enforce the following entry and security procedures during Star Wars Night.

Entry & Security Screening

All guests entering Ralph Engelstad Arena are subject to security screening and bag inspection. Guests wearing costumes or carrying props should allow extra time for entry. Security screening will take place at all public entrances.

Costumes

Star Wars-themed costumes are welcome, subject to the following guidelines:

Permitted:

Masks and helmets may be worn in public areas but must be removed upon request for identification or security screening.

Face paint is permitted.

Robes, cloaks, and capes are allowed if they do not interfere with movement, sightlines, or egress.

Star Wars-inspired attire, jerseys, and themed clothing are encouraged.

Not Permitted:

Costumes that fully conceal identity and cannot be temporarily removed.

Costumes that significantly restrict vision, movement, or communication.

Any costume deemed unsafe, disruptive, or inappropriate by Ralph Engelstad Arena staff. Items identified as NOT permitted will NOT be stored and will NOT be held for return after the event.

Prop Weapons & Accessories

For the safety of all guests, prop weapons are closely regulated.

Permitted Items (subject to inspection):

Toy and replica blasters, blaster rifles and blaster pistols that are clearly fictional and non-functional

Toy and replica light sabers and other lightweight, flexible, and non-metal props such as foam axes

All props are subject to inspection and approval by REA Security. Prohibited items must be returned to a vehicle or will not be allowed into the arena.

Costumes and props may not be used in a threatening, aggressive, or disruptive manner.

No mock combat, staged fighting, or choreographed duels during the event.

Final Authority

Guests must comply with all instructions from Ralph Engelstad Arena staff and event security personnel. Ralph Engelstad Arena security and management reserve the right to:

Deny entry

Require modification or removal of a costume or prop

Confiscate prohibited items

All decisions made by Ralph Engelstad Arena staff and event security personnel are final and all guidelines outlined above are subject to change without prior notice.
